

"In uncertainty, resilience is not endurance alone—it is the ability to adapt, evolve, and keep creating impact."

The past year reminded us that change is not an interruption—it is the environment we work in. Progress seldom follows a straight path, yet each turn brings new insight and renewed purpose. It has been a year of learning, adaptation, and quiet perseverance.

Strategic Reset

As we enter FY 2026–27, we do so with cautious optimism. The shifting geopolitical landscape presents both opportunities and challenges, and we remain grounded in realism as we chart our course forward.

The close of FY 2025–26 was instructive. Amid unpredictability, we recognized the importance of diversifying funding strategies and reinforcing programme resilience. These lessons now guide our approach.

In response, we are recalibrating our operational plan for the year ahead — ensuring alignment with the realities of our environment. We will continue to deepen impact within our areas of expertise, strengthen CSR partnerships, and expand donor-supported initiatives.

RISE: Transforming Rural Service Delivery

REEDS vision of enabling inclusive rural livelihoods is advancing through RISE—an AI-enabled platform connecting rural households with service providers while promoting women's entrepreneurship.

A recent field assessment highlights a key insight: the challenge is not demand or digital access, but the absence of trusted, structured intermediation.

By combining grassroots engagement with digital innovation and community institutions, RISE is evolving from concept to practice—to create a scalable, sustainable rural service ecosystem.
